

Main Motion A
NCARH 2008

NCARH Advisor-Elect

WHEREAS, a procedure must be set in the event that the NCARH Advisor-Elect position is not filled at SAACURH and if the NCARH Advisor is not elected at NCARH,

WHEREAS, NCHO serves as NCARH's parent organization and should have a voice in who their NCARH Liaison will be if said professional is coming in after their initial term should begin,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT, the following:

Policy Book. Article XI. Section D.

XI. NCARH Advisor-Elect Selection

...

- D. If no candidates submit bids or if a candidate is not selected at the SAACURH Regional conference, the position will be filled by appointment after personal interviews with the NCARH Director, SBD and the NCHO President.
- E. Once the NCARH Advisor-Elect is voted upon by the NCARH voting body and is accepted, the NCHO Executive Committee will then officially appoint that person to the NCHO Executive Committee as the "NCARH Liaison" until the next Advisor-Elect election.

BE CHANGED TO:

XI. NCARH Advisor-Elect Selection

...

- D. If no candidates submit bids or if a candidate is not selected at the SAACURH Regional conference, the position will be re-opened at the NCARH conference. If no advisor is elected at NCARH, an appointed NCHO representative will serve as the acting advisor until the position can be filled. Said candidate will be chosen by majority vote of the State Board of Directors with the NCHO President after a written bid review and personal interviews.
- E. Once the NCARH Advisor-Elect is voted upon by the NCARH voting body and is accepted, the NCHO Executive Committee will then officially appoint that person to the NCHO Executive Committee as the "NCARH Liaison" until the next Advisor-Elect election.

Submitted by:
Ellen Jones
February 9th, 2008